Red Barn Meats

Thank you also to Red Barn Meats for once again being part of our Epicurean 2024. . .

Their participation last year was a welcome addition to our event!

Red Barn Meats is a family-owned business and was established in 2013. Before moving to our current location at 9095 Briot Road in Croghan, we operated a small custom cut shop in Carthage. As our business grew, we saw the need for USDA products and services. Shortly after moving to Croghan, we applied for USDA inspection. Since then, we have grown exponentially. We now employ 28 individuals who take pride in their work every day. Due to the continued increase in demand for our products and services, we are looking to expand again in the near future.

We take pride in offering quality products and reasonable prices. Our beef, pork, lamb and chicken are sourced from local farmers. We strive for perfection and do our best to accommodate our customers' needs with every order. It is our vision to supply local businesses with local meats by employing people within our community. Keeping local businesses in business and the money in our local communities is our goal.

The Brick Oven Inn is owned and operated by Courtney Hoppel

Brick Oven Inn is a locally owned brick oven pizza restaurant with so much more to offer than pizza (although that's great on its own)!

The owner has decades of experience in the pizza craft and makes every ingredient from dough to sauce from scratch. The staff at Brick Oven Inn are all return favorites from years past and they are bringing back all the original recipes and favorites that the locals have been missing. Calzones, jumbo chicken wings, fresh salads, appetizers, and wedge sandwiches are all offered in addition to the hand stretched pizzas, on the expanding menu. Dine in or take out is now available as well. Let the friendly staff make you dinner.

Julie Harris - Julie's Cakes

Julie's Cakes is a home business 30 years in the making. Julie Harris, an advocate for children, family, and adults, is from the Copenhagen area. Stop at the dessert table and try one of her tasty treats and take a business card so you can reach out to her for your own special event.
